

Newsheet 19th January 2025

Welcome to St Paul's Egham Hythe, and especially if you are visiting or here for the first time. Do stay for refreshments after the service. Today our preacher is Rev'd Daniel Walker, Chaplain of Royal Holloway University.

Offering towards the work of St Paul's: If you are able to make a donation to the church, we have a card reader and an offering plate at the back of church, or you can scan the QR code on this sheet. If you would like to give regularly please see details of the Parish Giving Scheme on website www.speh.org.uk/support-us.

Hymns: 552 O Worship the Lord in the Beauty of Holiness, 515 O Lord, your tenderness, 658 There is a Redeemer, 314 Immortal Invisible

Collect: Eternal Lord, our beginning and our end: bring us with the whole creation to your glory, hidden through past ages and made known in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Post Communion: God of glory, you nourish us with your Word who is the bread of life: fill us with your Holy Spirit that through us the light of your glory may shine in all the world. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Reading: John 2:1-11

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. ²Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding.³When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.'⁴And Jesus said to her, 'Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.'⁵His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.'⁶Now standing there were six stone water-jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons.⁷Jesus said to them, 'Fill the jars with water.' And they filled them up to the brim.⁸He said to them, 'Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.' So they took it.⁹When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom ¹⁰and said to him, 'Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.'¹¹Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.
